The Water District is now offering a payment deferral program to federal employees affected by the government shutdown. The program will allow federal employees who are Englewood Water District customers to defer their water and sewer payments until one month after the federal budget is approved.

To participate in this program, visit the Englewood Water District Customer Service Department located at 201 Selma Avenue, Englewood. Please bring your federal identification card or a pay stub for verification.

For more information, please contact Administrative Assistant, Teresa Herzog at 941-460-1003 or by email at therzog@ewdfl.com.
